

N O T I C E . . . . .

The Wellesley Amateur Radio Society will hold its February meeting on Monday, February 1 at 7:30 P. M. in the basement of the Wellesley Hills Branch Library.

The Society is privileged to have as its featured speaker, Nathan A. Hallenstein, Chief Engineer of the F. C. C. Boston Regional Office. Mr. Hallenstein is also a Wellesley resident.

This should be a most interesting meeting, so please make every effort to attend. Members are encouraged to bring guests. Refreshments will be served.
